A grieuous burthen was thy birth to me,
Tetchy and waiward was thy infancy,
Thy schoole-dayes frightfull, desperate, wild and furious:
Thy age confirmd, proude, subtile, bloody trecherous,
What comfortable houre canst thou name,
That euer graced me in thy company?

Kin. Faith none but Humphreys houre, that cald your (Grace
To breakefast once forth of my company?
If it be so grieious in your sight,
Let me march on, and not offend you grace.

Dut. O heare me speake, for I shall neuer see thee more.

Kin. Come, come, you are too bitter.

Dut. Eyther thou wilt die by Gods iust ordinance
Ere from this warre thou turne a conquerour
Or I with griefe and extreame age shall perish,
And neuer looke vpon thy face againe:
Therefore take with thee my most heauy curse,
Which in the day of battell tire thee more
Then all the compleat armour that thou wearst
My prayers on the aduerse party fight,
And there the little soules of Edwards children
Whisper the spirits of thine enemies,
And promise them successe in victory,
Bloody thou art, and bloody will be thy end,
Shame serues thy life, and doth thy death attend. Exit.

Qu. Though far more cause, yet much lesse spirit to curse
Abides in me, I say amen to all.

Kin. Stay Maddam, I must speake a word with you.

Qu. I haue no more sonnes of the royall blood,
For thee to murther, for my daughters, Richard
They shall be praying Nunnes, not weeping Queenes,
And therefore leuell not to hit their liues,

Kin. You haue a daughter cald Elizabeth,
Vertuous and faire, royall and gratious.

Qu. And must she die for this? O let her liue,
And ile corrupt her manners, staine her beauty,
Slander my selfe, as false to Edwards bed,
Throw ouer her the vaile of infamy,
So she may liue vnscard from bleeding slaughter
